New York Young Entrepreneur Challenge – Call for Applications Closes Feb. 28th
$20,000 in start-up funding and essential business services awarded to young entrepreneurs

BOHEMIA, N.Y (Feb. 4th, 2014) – FrontStreet Facility Solutions Inc. (FrontStreet) in partnership with Sprint and Capital One Bank announced the call for applications closes Friday, Feb. 28th, for the 2014 New York Young Entrepreneur Challenge (NY YEC). Online applications are being accepted now for the business pitch competition that rewards up to $20,000 in start-up funding, mentorship and additional support essential for starting a business. Entrepreneurs aged 17-22, either living in New York or enrolled as an undergraduate student at an accredited New York college or university, are eligible to apply.

"As the deadline nears, we are excited to see an increase in the number of entries and that those entries submitted have the same incredible innovation we have come to associate with this challenge," Joseph Scaretta, FrontStreet's Chief Development Officer, said. "We encourage all young entrepreneurs throughout the state of New York to apply today."

An esteemed panel of judges from Capital One Bank will review the online applications, and then the highest scoring applicants will be invited to present their business pitch in New York City on May 14th. Immediately following the NY YEC live pitch competition, one winner will be named in each of the two competition tracks, Student and Entrepreneur.

For more information, a public information session will be held Wednesday, Feb. 5th, from 7-7:30 pm EST. The conference dial-in number is (605) 475-4700 and the participant access code is 622117#.
