Long Island Based Business To Be Featured on MSNBC's "Your Business"
FrontStreet Facility Solutions Rebuilds Rockaway Business Post Sandy

Bohemia, NY (February 28, 2013) – Long Island's FrontStreet Facility Solutions (FrontStreet) will be featured on MSNBC's "Your Business" on Sun., March 3, at 7:30 am. Sunday's edition of "Your Business" will highlight local Rockaway Beach community business, Surfside Bagels, which suffered excessive damage from Hurricane Sandy. FrontStreet, Chief Development Officer, Joseph Scaretta led the effort to rebuild Surfside Bagels through an in-kind donation, which included gutting of the demolished store, refurbishing dry wall, and replacing electrical wiring.

"FrontStreet is committed to giving back to the community and promoting entrepreneurship," Chief Development Officer, Joseph Scaretta said. "We are honored to help two NYC fireman rebuild their business and restore a sense of normalcy to the community."

"We are grateful that FrontStreet Facility Solutions and MSNBC's 'Your Business' offered to help rebuild our store," Surfside Bagels co-owner Scott Edwards said. "After the storm, we were shocked by the amount of damage and did not know how to begin to rebuild. With the help of FrontStreet Facility Solutions and MSNBC's 'Your Business' we were able to open our doors on Mon., Feb. 11th."
