GreatBlue Research CEO Michael Vigeant to Play in Travelers Championship Pro-Am with PGA TOUR Player Mark Wilson

MERIDEN, CT (JUNE 18, 2013) – GreatBlue Research CEO Michael Vigeant will join the ranks of the organization's PGA TOUR partner Mark Wilson during the Travelers Celebrity Pro-Am June 19th at TPC River Highlands in Cromwell. The Pro-Am is one of many events leading up to the Travelers Championship and will include ESPN's Chris Berman, Heisman Trophy Winner Doug Flutie and former NBA Player and UConn Alum Scott Burrell, among others.

"I am honored to be joining Mark Wilson as he plays his first round of golf at the TPC River Highlands course since 2006," Vigeant said. "GreatBlue Research is a proud partner of Mark. We applaud his athletic abilities and support his unwavering commitment to philanthropy."

Vigeant will be in good company as Wilson's top finishes to date in the 2013 season include winning third place in Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard and ninth place at the RBC Heritage. He has earned five PGA TOUR victories since 2007, most recently winning the 2012 Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation.

As a philanthropist, Wilson contributes to Time of Grace, the PGA TOUR Wives Association, The Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer (MAACC) Fund, Blessings in a Backpack, The First Tee of Greater Chicago and The Western Golf Association Evans Scholars Foundation. He and his wife, Amy, also founded the Amy and Mark Wilson Delta Gamma Lectureship in Values and Ethics Series.

In addition to Vigeant's participation in the Pro-Am, GreatBlue Research will be this year's host of the Champions Club. The climate-controlled accommodations at the GreatBlue Research Champions Club will offer food and full-bar service to more than 1,500 fans during the Travelers Championship. Club ticket holders will also enjoy the clear view of the 18th green from the open-air stadium seating.
